

Preschool Teacher - job description

November 2019

Kinderhaus, San Francisco's only German immersion preschool, is looking for a dynamic preschool teacher to join Kinderhaus' teaching team. We are looking for motivated self-starters, who are passionate about early childhood development, enjoy working with diverse families and are looking to grow their careers. If this sounds exciting, please apply!

Job Title: Teacher – Kinderhaus preschool

Job Type: Hourly, 20-40 hours/week

Reports to: Kinderhaus director

About Kinderhaus

Kinderhaus is a play-based program, where children are exposed to different cultures and languages in a supportive environment that allows each child's talents and interests to unfold. Children are encouraged to develop the values of sharing, cooperation and respect for others. Activities include art projects, music, theater, crafts, movement, physical education, nature exploration and story time – with an emphasis on the German language.

Responsibilities

- Our teacher will work under the direct supervision of our director and/or head teacher to:

- Ensure supervision, protection, and care of all children
- Plan and implement developmentally appropriate activities that provide opportunities for learning, exploration, and growth with an emphasis on supporting individual needs and independence
- Meet the emotional needs of the kids by supporting them during times of conflict, injury, and transition (arrival, nap time, etc.)
- Conduct child observations and assist in parent-teacher conferences
- Adhere to Kinderhaus policies when working with the children
- Help with set-up/clean-up of classroom activities
- Engage in constructive communication with all team members, children and parents

Qualifications

- 18 years of age
- Completion of 12 Early Childhood Education (ECE or equivalent) units
- Experience as a teacher in an educational setting with children under five
- First-Aid and CPR training (may be obtained prior to hire)
- Knowledge of German and comfortable communicating in German required; native fluency a plus

Part or Full time position available. Compensation commensurate with experience.
Benefits available to full time staff.
